

EXPERIENCING GOD STUDY

13 . Reviewing God's Presence

This study gives you opportunity to review God's presence with you and the ways in which He wants you to become more involved with Him.

1. Prayerfully review your Favorite Passages in the preceding studies. Then record in each category below several passages that are especially meaningful to you.

a. God's character and attributes - your admiration for Him

b. God's involvement and attitudes - your importance to Him

c. God's invitations and commands - your involvement with Him

2. Copy one or two of your favorite passages that have most influenced you toward fuller involvement with God.

3. Which application from your twelve studies do you most want to pray about further and use in the coming weeks? Or is God laying a new application on your heart?
